MY DAY - BY CHEETAH THE CHIMPANZEE

After dinner I relax. I listen to the radio or watch old videos of myself in Tarzan films with Johnny Weissmuller. This evening I'm going to watch a wildlife film. It's a good life.

I have afternoon tea at about 4 o'clock. I usually have a banana but this afternoon, for a special treat, Dan is going to take me down the freeway to a hamburger restaurant. After tea I do some abstract painting.

In the morning I hang out in my room. I have got a TV, radio, air-conditioning and a fridge. Lunch is between 12 and 2 p.m. I try to eat healthy food. Today I'm going to have some fruit and a raw onion.

In the afternoon I often go out with Dan. I ride on the back of his Honda scooter. People stop and stare at us. I don't know why. I make faces and wave to other drivers.

Dinner is between 6 p.m. and 8 p.m. I have rice or spaghetti with tomato sauce or macaroni cheese. Most chimpanzees are vegetarian but I eat anything.

I usually wake up between 6 a.m. and 7 a.m. and have a really good scratch. I don't wear any clothes unless someone is going to take my photograph. Dan, my human friend, takes me to breakfast at 8 o'clock. It's usually muesli with milk and sugar.
